

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I was appalled by this move and have contacted Sinclair Broadcasting Group directly, as well as my local cable provider regarding my concerns.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But they instead are using their access to try to control the outcome of one of the closest elections in modern history. This is not serving the public interest in any way.

The FCC is the organization to which citizen's must turn to have these concerns addressed. Please work to strengthen the rules for media accountability to serving the public interest. Not just one segment of the population!

Thank you for your time.
